Welcome to our free monthly professional learning series for World Language Teachers

Are you looking for fresh insights, practical strategies, and inspiration to elevate your teaching practice during the upcoming academic year?

We are thrilled to announce a monthly webinar series running from July 2025 to May 2026, designed to support you in key areas of education. Each month, we'll delve into a specific theme to provide you with actionable takeaways and opportunities for growth.

Our webinar sessions will generally take place on the last Wednesday of each month at 4:30 PM Eastern Time (EST through February, EDT from March through May), NB the difference in scheduling for November and December (see schedule).

We look forward to learning and growing with you throughout the 2025-2026 academic year!

Sincerely,

Dawn Samples
